

SEWER DISTRICT PLANS ORDERED

The General Council In Joint Session Acts.

Board of Aldermen Passes Street Im- provement Ordinances and Park Bonds.

GO AFTER THE BILL POSTERS

The boards of councilmen and aldermen met as a committee of the whole last night preceding the regular aldermanic meeting, and issued instructions to Engineer John Alvord, of Chicago, to prepare at once plans for sewer district No. 3, so that the city will not be delayed in anyway in letting the contract. The pipe will be smaller than the present sewer pipe and the storm water will be run into the creek. Engineer Alvord has been here and is acquainted with the situation. He will be prepared to finish his work without the delay of another visit. Following the committee of the whole meeting each board met separately and ratified the action taken by the committee of the whole.

Aldermanic Meeting.

When the board of aldermen was called to order Alderman Palmer was absent.

The minutes of the last regular and called meetings were read and adopted.

Mayor Yeiser notified the board that Mrs. Annie Crutchfield had sued the city for $10,000 damages for the death of her husband who fell from the Island Creek bridge at Sixth street and broke his neck.

The finance committee was asked for a statement financially to see if the city can send a delegation to the meeting of the Ohio Valley Improvement association meeting at Portsmouth, O., October 17-18.

Contractor Will Husbands contracts for building Sowell street from Ashbrook avenue to Hayes avenue; Sowell street from Ashcraft avenue to Hayes avenue, and Hayes avenue from Sowell street to Bridge street, was favored. His bids were 83 cents, $1.34 and 74 cents, respectively.

Thomas Bridges Sons contract for sidewalks on Fourth street between Norton and Husbands streets, Jones street, Ninth and Eleventh streets, and Fountain avenue between Jefferson and Monroe streets, was ratified.

The city engineer was selected to go with Mayor Yeiser and J. Q. Taylor, of the board of public works, to the national municipalities convention meeting at Chicago next month.

The committee was directed to confer with Superintendent Muscoe Burnett of the Paducah Water company relative to a new contract for water, the 20 year contract expiring this fall.

The request of the Paducah Traction that its tracks might remain on Twelfth street was filed. The new route leads down Tenth street from Trimble street.

The request of J. M. Reece for a refund of one month's saloon license was filed, not granted.

The selection of R. Holland as deputy assessor was ratified.

The board of public works was asked to cut down street expenses as much as possible.

Action on opening an alley near

Farley place in Mechanicsburg was deferred, pending a conference with property owners.

Henry Rankin and Tarbel Laurie were notified that they must set back fences now on public property on Jefferson street where new pavements are being built.

Mayor Yeiser was directed to swear out a warrant against a bill posting firm for obscene pictures posted.

The committee was instructed to secure rights of way so that the city can extend sanitary sewers through private property, this as a precaution against delaying the work. Some rights of way will have to be secured.

All salaries and accounts were allowed.

Ordinances Acted On.

Ordinance improving by grading and graveling Nineteenth street from Broadway to the Mayfield road, first passage.

Ordinance submitting the proposition of issuing $100,000 bonds for park purposes, second passage.

The committee was instructed to draft an ordinance for pavements on Eighth street from Washington street to Norton street.

The matter of placing a light on one end of the Sixth street bridge over Island creek was referred to the board of public works.

H. H. Evans was refused a coffee house license at 628 North Twelfth street.

John Golightly was refused a liquor license near the Illinois Central depot.

The J. W. Counts company was granted a wholesale liquor license at 103 South Second street.

The request of E. C. Baker to open a saloon on the north side was deferred.

Several deeds and transfers to lots in Oak Grove cemetery were ratified.

The committee was instructed to draw an ordinance to assess a fine for dry wells after January 1, 1907, inside any sewer district.

The city engineer was instructed to have warrants issued for failure to make new gas and water connections where street improvement work is being done.

The board then adjourned.

STENSLAND

MUCH SOUGHT AFTER AT NEW YORK DOCKS.

Chicago Authorities Wish to Rush Him Through to Illinois Without Stop.

New York, Sept. 21.—The arrival here from Morocco early next week of Paul O. Stensland, the embarking president of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank of Chicago, will probably be the signal for a race to get possession of him. Stensland is in the custody of Assistant State's Attorney Olson, of Chicago, who was commissioned a United States agent to bring him here. Olson and the state's attorney's office of Chicago want to rush the defendant bank president west before his son, Theodore Stensland, already indicted for alleged knowledge before the fact, and others interested, can get the ear of the fugitive. Theodore Stensland arrived here last night to be ready to meet his father and dissuade him from his intention of submitting meekly.

Detective Kimmier, for the Chicago police, placed the necessary papers for extradition in the hands of Gov. Higgins at Albany and Gov. Stokes at Trenton yesterday. He has permission to rush the noted thief back to Chicago. It is said that Kimmier has chartered one of the fastest yachts in the harbor to meet the Prinz Adelbert in quarantine.

The moment the yacht gets alongside the liner, it is the plan to put Stensland aboard of her, race to Jersey City and place him on a train for Chicago before his son can get to him.

BOODLER FAILS TO KEEP FAITH

W. H. Ritter Flouts St. Louis Authorities and Fines City.

St. Louis, Sept. 21.—W. H. Ritter, former member of the house of delegates, who volunteered to return from Denver and tell of the distribution of a $250,000 boodle fund, including $75,000 said to have been received from H. M. Snyder, the Kansas City banker and promoter, has fled the city. His failure to appear at the Snyder trial yesterday led to the case being nolle prossed. Ritter was traced to East St. Louis and then back again. Police were sent to arrest him at a hotel where he was located. As the police came in one door Ritter fled out of another, leaving his baggage behind, and went to the Union station, where he caught a west-bound train. The attorneys of Snyder say today that Ritter attempted to blackmail their client, threatening that unless he financed a mining enterprise he was running in Arizona that he (Ritter) would go before the court and tell all that he knew about the purchase of delegates whose votes it is said Snyder had to have in order to pass the traction bill.

SPECIAL SESSION

FAVORED BY MANY MEMBERS OF LEGISLATURE.

Hon. Louis P. Head Says He Looks for Call—Louisville's Lid is the Issue.

The "lid" in Louisville is attracting a great deal of attention in this state since the governor took the action he did in putting it on tight, and from indications the legislature will have to meet in special session in January to pass or revise the present liquor traffic laws to conform with the idea of the governor and others who are interested in the moral conditions of the largest city in the state.

"I believe that a special session of the legislature will be held in January," Representative Louis P. Head, now clerk of the Eddyville penitentiary, declared this morning at the train. "The Louisville papers first published the item and it has been taken up generally in the state. Many papers in towns where local option laws are enforced have dwelt strongly on the matter, voicing the sentiments of the governor. I have talked with many legislators and the inclination seems to favor the 'lid.' This means a special session of the legislature to pass laws necessary."

PATRICK'S FIGHT FOR LIFE

Case to Be Brought Before Governor of New York.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Gov. Higgins said today that he had an appointment for tomorrow morning with some gentlemen who had requested to see him on an aspect of the case of Albert T. Patrick, whose conviction and sentence to die for the alleged murder of William Marsh Rice at New York in the fall of 1900, has been fought with unparalleled persistence in the courts of this state and is now on appeal before the United States supreme court.

Shop-Lifting in Stores.

New York, Sept. 21.—That shop-lifting in the big department stores is on the increase, owing to the leniency of the justices, was openly stated in court yesterday by Louis Lowenstein, legal representative of the Association of Department Store Owners. There were eight cases on the calendar yesterday, and adjournment was allowed for seven. In the eighth case the prisoner pleaded guilty. Mr. Lowenstein says his office had indisputable evidence that an organized system among shoplifters exists; that they are banded together to pilfer from the big stores, while other professionals dispose of the goods. He said that every gang had its "sinking fund" to be drawn upon for the defense of those arrested. Women comprise two-thirds of the membership of these gangs.

Experiments made in Germany show that butter keeps best if mixed with 3 to 5 per cent. of salt. If the percentage of salt is over 6, the result is less satisfactory.

SNEAK THIEF

CAPTURED AT PRINCETON BY OFFICER TOLBERT.

Had Been Stealing Wearing Apparel From Caboose—Well Executed Work.

Dick Tolbert, detective, is the title the popular Illinois Central special agent of this city has won, and today he is following up an excellent piece of work performed yesterday at Princeton, Ky., when he arrested an alleged sneak thief. He had been assigned to this particular work and acquitted himself with credit.

Yesterday afternoon Will Jones, alias Will Baker, with numerous other aliases, was arrested by Special Agent Dick Tolbert at Princeton. He is a tall yellow negro, 23 years old. He had been hanging about the railroad property for some time. Lige Cross, son of Patrolman Lige Cross, of the local police force, lost several articles of wearing apparel from his caboose. He is a flagman. Later Brakeman Jerry White, also of Paducah, missed clothing. The last report to come in was from Conductor S. A. Barker. All are in the freight service.

Their caboose had been robbed and the articles were missed always at Princeton.

Special Agent Tolbert two days ago went to Princeton with Flagman Cross and Brakeman White to look into the matter. A negro was found wearing a coat belonging to Cross. The Paducah special agent stopped him, sweated the negro for some time and secured his story. He said he had bought the clothes from Jones and today the examining trial is being held.

LOSSES SMALL

AND INSURANCE MEN HOPE FOR LOWER RATE.

State Inspector Will Not Come for Some Time, but Will Make Some Changes.

If Paducah does not soon get a reduction in insurance rates something will drop for there are insurance agents in Paducah who believe that the merchants and property owners have one coming to them notwithstanding the fact that the San Francisco disaster caused a general increase and Paducah had to bear her proportion of it.

"I had a fire last night but did not know it until this morning," E. G. Boone said. "It was a small one, they all have been small for months. Paducah has been fortunate of late in fire losses. There have been few and the departments have done excellent work."

Such a testimonial and coming from this source is one of great encouragement to those working for a reduction. The inspector for the state board of underwriters, William Gilsdorf, has been expected here for weeks, but he wrote from Henderson that he would have to go to Lexington and may not visit here for months. He stated that he expected to make changes and would probably be here several months. The letter was written to Local Inspector MacPherson.

Rush of Business.

For more than a week have passenger trains been blocked at the Illinois Central depot by freights, principally coal trains. The dispatchers are worked over time and the train crews are busy from morning to night moving the freight. Never before in the history of the division has the business been so heavy. Three extra "turn around" freights are run out of Paducah every morning as first, second and third sections of the morning accommodation passenger train, No. 122, from Fulton to Louisville. Daily these trains block the way. Incoming freights delay their progress and the division is a mass of trains from Central City to Paducah.

Daily Thought.

"He is soon forgotten who never forgets himself."

PRACTICAL ECONOMY.

Aside from distributing the expense of sewer building, so as not to become a burden on the property owner, there is a distinct question of plain, practical economy involved in the matter of financing the project. This was expressed by City Engineer Washington when he advised the board of public works and joint sewer committee of the general council to make terms in the contract whereby 80 per cent of the cost of construction may be paid the contractor as the work progresses, leaving 20 per cent to be held back until the completed system is accepted. He said that in this way the contract price will be reduced 35 per cent and many additional bids will be received. In the necessity for immediate action, which confronted the general council in building sewer district No. 2, there was no time to wait for a bond issue, but, nevertheless, the engineer's opinion was based on practical experience. Many contractors capable of doing good work, and especially local men, would bid on the contract, if they were assured of receiving part of the cost price before the work was completed. It requires a big outlay to purchase material and pay laborers and teamsters for a period extending over several months, and the majority of contractors have not the available means whereby to undertake such a contract. Other contractors, able to do so, realize the value of their money, and the delay in collecting from the property holders individually, and they tack about 25 per cent onto their bids. No one can blame them for this, but the extra expense can be obviated by taking advantage of the ten-year installment plan of collection. By an amendment to the city charter the city may issue bonds to cover the cost of construction falling due from one to ten years. Then the amount of the bonds is collected from the property liable for the cost in ten annual installments. In this way the city is saved from expense in the end, the contractor is relieved of the necessity of looking to a hundred or more individuals for his money, and the property owner is not burdened with a big assessment.

What has become of the great moral awakening that possessed the country, and particularly New York, following the Stanford White murder in Madison Square Garden? Have those rivers of editorial ink failed to wash society clean? Did not that fearful blast from the pulpit wither the social sins of the metropolis? Really, the most of us had almost forgotten Harry Thaw, the Pittsburgh youth languishing in the Tombs prison. Since the tragedy of the roof garden, Jerome has adopted the notion of purifying the state by running for governor, and Anthony Comstock has suppressed the catalogue of an art school and put a Princess gown on a bronze statue in a New York park. The newspapers and a certain kind of preachers are now engaged in drawing great and obvious moral lessons from the Real Estate Trust company case. Thus we are made to think better thoughts, when the lesson is simple and the illustration popular stuff to talk about.

Secretary Wilson is to investigate the flea problem, it is said. While the bureau of immigration may claim some jurisdiction, in as much as the foreign bugs, which have thrown the Milwaukee city government into confusion, have been introduced by fleeing Russians; yet the flea, like the mosquito, can still with propriety be classed as a local issue. Moreover, the flea problem presents some of the difficulties encountered by the war department in dealing with the Pulajanes in the Philippines. Thus, it can be seen that some delicate questions of jurisdiction are raised in connection with the subject; but if Secretary Wilson is simply forehanded in starting a little presidential boomlet for himself, he will find the flea problem in issues that are close to the great body of the common people.

Many Paducahans today will do honor to the remains of a citizen, who has been closely identified with the development of the city, when Capt. George O. Hart is laid to rest. He was a man, whom success had marked for her own. Successfully in various lines of enterprise he succeeded, always confining himself to legitimate mercantile ventures. He was the merchant, concentrating his money and energies on one project. Withal he was genial and popular—a man, who not only made his presence felt in the community while alive, but will be missed personally, although the institution which he founded, continues to thrive.

The Cairo Bulletin this morning contains a clever cartoon, entitled: "Cairo Lady at Paducah Horse Show." She is seen dressed in the height of fancy in the foreground, leading a pigmy horse by a long halter strap. Well, ladies first always in Kentucky, but the horses will be on exhibition, too.

William Jennings Bryan is lining up the states for Democratic harmony; but Senator Bailey will not thank him for going to Texas and pouring any more oil on the troubled waters.

There must have been an extraordinary rush to vote at the Democratic primary late yesterday afternoon, judging by the unexpected number of ballots cast.

HIGHER MEAT UNDER NEW LAW

Washington Agent of Packers Predicts Raising of Prices.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Frank E. Graham, Washington manager of Armour & Co., is quoted in an interview today as saying he has no doubt that the new meat inspection law, which goes into effect October 1, will cause an advance in the prices of meat food products. "The prices of meats are always controlled by demand and supply," said Mr. Graham, "the same as almost any commodity. When you take the under grades of meat not strictly first class off the market and consider that that class forms a large percentage of all meat sold, then you can readily understand that as the supply is shortened and the demand just as great the consumer will have to pay a few cents more for his beef, because he is getting first-class meat."

Judge Cheers Lawyers Fighting.

St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 21.—A lively fight between Attorney Samuel S. Shull and John S. Boyer, assistant prosecuting attorney and nominee for state senator, occurred in Justice Burke's court today. The courtroom was crowded, many of those present being women, and their scramble to get out of the way of the belligerents attracted hundreds to the scene.

The trouble arose over the absence of a state's witness, Mrs. Frank K. Robertson. Boyer accused Shull of sending her away and Shull retorted by calling him a liar. Blows followed.

While the fight was at its height Justice Burke arose and said: "Gentlemen, you may fight all you desire, and if both of you get killed I won't care a d— I believe this world would be better off with a few less lawyers in it."

Menaced by Insane Man and Wife.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 21.—John Frick, aged 51, a carpenter, went into Mayor Boehne's office today and, it is said, made threats. The mayor, fearing the man wanted to assassinate him, called for help and Frick was locked up. This afternoon both Frick and his wife were declared insane by a commission. It is said Frick had made several threats against Mayor Boehne because he imagines he is a relative of Henry C. Frick.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO WAIT

Every dose makes you feel better. Lax-Ro keeps your whole insides right. Sold on money-back plan everywhere. Price 10c a box.

While Americans take great pride and pleasure in being called "strenuous people." It is perhaps no generally appreciated that a great many injure themselves physically—wreck nervous systems, invite premature wrinkles, gray hairs and, in firmities by the hurry, worry way, in which they live, neglecting in many instances proper care of the body and letting the real pleasures of life escape as a forfeit. Unrestrained strenuousness means neurasthenia ultimately.

Neurasthenia is nerve-exhaustion and that means inefficiency of the body to carry on vital functioning. Nerve centers lax; debility ensues. Listlessness and fatigue reign. Pain may be felt in the back; fullness or pressure at the top of the head; sleep is broken and without refreshment digestion notably is weak and loss of appetite constipation and distress after eating are the rule. The head ache of neurasthenia is like a band around the head; ordinarily is worse in the morning and better toward the end of day, and is probably the most common of all headaches which come for treatment.

Now, drugs do not help neurasthenia; that is admitted; and physicians have long been accustomed to send their neurasthenics away from the cities to the mountains, sea shore, abroad or anywhere to find new scenes and enjoy tranquil resortation. But that is expensive and there is a surer, quicker and better as well as less costly way—Osteopathy.

Osteopathy cures neurasthenia, which is but another name for nervousness, by stimulation to the nerve and the circulation.

I can show you to your satisfaction in a very few minutes why osteopathy is the sane rational cure for ALL diseases of the nerves. Come to see me at any time between the hours of 9 and 12 in the forenoon and 2 and 5 in the afternoon. Dr. G. B. Froage, 516 Broadway. Phone 1407.

SAVES THREE FROM DROWNING

Wisconsin Man Shows Great Presence of Mind in Rescue.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Sept. 21.—Charles Young rescued John Tuslo, James Walker, and Joseph Moreau from drowning today. The men were taking an airship across the river in a rowboat when the boat capsized. Young went to their rescue. He first secured the airship to a log and then swam with Tuslo to a log boom. He then returned for the other two men who had gone down twice, and brought them to a safe place. Young is the hero of hundreds who are at tending the northern Wisconsin state fair and is deemed worthy of a Carnegie hero medal.

WOMAN IN PITTSBURG SCANDAL

Fiancee of "Johnston." Alleged Gambler, Throws Him Over.

Pittsburg, Sept. 21.—A second chapter was added to the American club scandal here today when it was announced that the fiancée of W. Joseph Johnston, the man arrested for cheating at cards, had thrown him over and threatened him with arrest if he ever mentioned her name. The young woman, whose name is being withheld by the club members, did not know the alleged gambler as "Johnston," but under his rightful name, which the club men say is one of the best in the west. The young woman herself was the innocent cause of having suspicion directed against "Johnston," as she once protested against some friends referring to her fiancé as Johnston, saying that it was not his name.

DISMISS POLICE CHIEF KIELY.

St. Louis Commissioners Sustain All Charges Against Official.

St. Louis, Sept. 21.—The board of police commissioners, sitting as judge and jury, last night sustained the charges filed many months ago against Chief of Police Matthew Kiely and dismissed him from the service. Edmund P. Creedy was appointed chief and Acting Chief Gillaspay was retained as assistant. The board refused Kiely's request that his old captaincy be given back to him. Kiely's removal eliminates from the department the last vestige of what is known as the anti-Folk element. The charges against him were: Causing a sergeant to make a false report on an election day disturbance; putting an immoral officer in the central district; allowing a sergeant to remain in the department when he knew him to be an immoral character.

BAILEY FACES FIGHT ON SEAT

Connection With Oil Company Causes Bitter Feeling in Texas.

Fort Worth, Tex., Sept. 21.—Publication of the testimony of H. Clay Pierce connecting Senator Bailey with the Waters-Pierce Oil company, has started a fight, the avowed purpose of which is to prevent the return of Bailey to the United States senate by the legislature which meets next January. Chairmen of the various Democratic county committees are calling mass meetings for the purpose of instructing members of the legislature to vote against Bailey. The first meeting will be held Saturday at Quitman. The call for the meeting is declared to be imperative because of Bailey's connection with the Waters-Pierce Oil company as attorney, secret confidential agent and representative.

WOULD ABOLISH CHILD LABOR.

American Federation of Labor Will Try to Secure Legislation.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The executive council of the American Federation of Labor decided today to make every effort to secure the passage of laws more generally to abolish child labor. The applications of several unions to be supported in the presentation of wage scales to their respective employers upon the question of higher wages were approved. At the same time it was impressed upon them that every effort should be made to prevent strikes if possible. The appointment of more organizers was authorized.

Ice Is Mailed to President.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Somebody in Baltimore mailed "a ten-pound chunk of ice to President Roosevelt, and because the ice melted before it could be gotten out of the Baltimore postoffice Postmaster Harris, of that city, has taken pains to send a formal letter of explanation to the executive office as to why only the empty package was received.

Many curious things have been mailed to President Roosevelt, but there is no record that anyone ever before attempted to get a block of ice to him in that way.

In his letter to the White House Postmaster Harris explains that on Sept. 13, at 8:45 a. m., one of his collectors of mail found a package on top of a letter box. The collector was astonished to find that the package, which was addressed to President Roosevelt, contained about ten pounds of rapidly melting ice, and bore eight 1-cent stamps to forward it to Washington. The melting quickly brought the package within weight and made the 8-cent postage adequate. As no train was due to start for Washington at once it was found impossible to get the ice out of the city before it melted. All Postmaster Harris could do, therefore, he seriously states, was to send the empty package.

GOMPERS MAY QUIT POLITICAL GAME

John Mitchell Will Take No Part With Him.

Other Labor Leaders Oppose Campaign Plans of the Federation of Labor.

MAY MEAN COMPLETE CHANGE.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—The announcement is made here that John Mitchell, head of the United Mine Workers, will not take an active part in the political campaign of the Federation of Labor.

Mr. Mitchell was scheduled to deliver a number of speeches in certain districts in Indiana, but it is now feared that he will not do so. He is in Washington attending the quarterly meeting of the executive council of the federation. Politics has been the principal matter under consideration. It is understood that differences have developed in the council that may ultimately result in the retirement of Samuel Gompers from the presidency of the federation.

Mr. Mitchell and Vice President Duncan, it is stated, do not approve of the campaign methods of Mr. Gompers.

CONSCIENCE-STRIKEN.

Folk Gets Letter From Man Who Says He Distributed $250,000.

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 21.—Declaring his conscience demands that he tell what he knows about bootlegging operations in the St. Louis house of delegates, W. H. Ritter, a former member of that body, has sent a letter to Governor Folk. Ritter, who is now living in Denver, says he received $250,000 which he distributed among members of the "combine." Ritter left St. Louis suddenly when the bootleg investigation was started four years ago and his whereabouts had remained a mystery until his letter to the governor. A telegram was sent to Ritter asking him to come to St. Louis at once.

Will Not Submit.

New York, Sept. 21.—Harry K. Thaw, awaiting trial on a charge of having murdered Architect Stanford White, refused to undergo an examination by three alienists whom his counsel took to the Tombs today for that purpose. The physicians were Charles C. Wagner, superintendent of the state hospital at Binghamton, N. Y.; Dr. Christian C. Bell, superintendent, and Dr. D. D. Evans, chief physician of the state hospital, Morris Plains, N. J.

LAND OF LIBERTY IS SWITZERLAND

Sensitive About Political Privileges There.

Science of Self Government Carried More Nearly to Perfection There.

SOME INCIDENTS OF TYRANNY

Zurich, Sept. 21.—One who arrives in Switzerland after breathing the air of anarchy and assassination in Russia for several weeks is entitled to indulge in a certain amount of moralizing on the blessings of liberty. The love of freedom, however, is not the exclusive possession of the Swiss. It is found in a greater or less degree everywhere that the children of men abide, but in Switzerland it has been gratified more fully perhaps than anywhere else, even more than in our own land of liberty. The distinction is due to our own fault—to our habitual indifference to the precious rights and privileges that heaven and the revolutionary fathers have bestowed upon us. The Swiss have no such fault. They are extremely sensitive concerning everything that affects their political and civil prerogatives and observe that eternal vigilance which we are told is the price of liberty.

The sturdy, serious character of the Swiss is illustrated at Zurich more accurately than at the summer resorts in the Alps, where hundreds of thousands of tourists—I presume a million or more—come every season and drop golden sovereigns and silver dollars into the laps of the worthy burghers, not one of whom, be he rich or great or learned, is too proud to accept a franc or even a centime from the haughty and troublesome travelers. It is worth while for every American to come here and study the habits and methods of these people; to analyze this combination of thrift and pride and independence of the citizens of what is perhaps the best governed community in human history.

Self Government.

The science of self-government and the ideals of democracy have been carried nearer to perfection here than in any other nation. At the same time it is surprising to see the pride of ancestry and jealousy of social position that continually infringe upon the doctrines of equality and fraternity. No people in the world take more stock in social precedence or in family relationships, and occasionally you will be shocked at the social tyranny and exclusiveness of the aristocracy and the autocratic disposition of the "lords" who bear no titles, but hold their own heads much higher than they allow the peasants to do. Their children are educated in foreign countries; their daughters get their garments from Paris, and they are as scrupulous concerning the matrimonial connections of their children as the ancient French nobility. They have coats-of-arms upon their carriages; place them on their pews in church and over the entrances to their houses and on their note paper and book plates. You often hear of acts of tyranny and intolerance also, but they have nothing to do with politics. They invariably involve the domestic relations or religion of the people, or are inspired by the ecclesiastics.

For example, the other day I read about the refusal of the authorities of a certain canton to lease the water power of one of its rivers to a manufacturing concern because of the opposition of the clergy. When the St. Gothard railroad desired to make the little town of Atdorf, the home of William Tell, its division headquarters and establish repair shops there, the authorities refused to grant permission for fear Protestant workmen might be brought into the Catholic community. And yet there is no land in which nowadays the representatives of the different religious faiths abide in greater peace or Christian fellowship. The Protestant majority, representing two-thirds of the population, and the Catholic minority, embracing the other third, are seldom disturbed by differences.

A Confederation.

The early Swiss did not set up a sovereign republic as we understand that word. Switzerland is not a republic; it is a confederation, a political partnership of twenty-two counties. One little community and then three more established their independence and defied the wrath of tyrants, and then their neighbors joined from time to time—representing three races and two religions—but united by common interests and common aspirations joined in a common cause. Three languages are still necessary to express their thoughts. All official documents are

NATIONAL CIGAR STANDS

Liberty!

The 2,000 druggists who have united in the National Cigar Stands Co., have won liberty for themselves and cigar economy for their public.

They have freed themselves from burdensome taxation on cigar-selling imposed by the old-fashioned system of cigar distribution which exacted from four to six profits between producer and smoker. They buy cigars as one concern—the National Cigar Stands Co.—and thereby become sufficiently powerful in the tobacco market to own their own brands and control their own factories.

Every National Cigar Stand Virtually Produces Its Own Cigars and sells them nearer to actual cost than ever before possible, because each store profits by all the advantages possessed by this central organization.

The saving effected by cutting out all the middlemen's profits is well represented in the following brands:

Negro Walks Out of the Court House to Liberty.

Statement of Prosecuting Witness
Proven to Be False by Attorneys for Defense.

ANDERSON ADMITTED TO BAIL.

Andrew Cooper is the happiest negro in the city today if not in the state. He this morning at day break awoke with the feeling that circuit court would wind up its business today and that before the next week passed he would be in the Eddyville state branch penitentiary, serving a sentence of twelve years for criminal assault. At 10 o'clock the negro walked from the court house free and his escape was narrow indeed.

Cooper was held over from police court on the charge of criminally assaulting Birdie Bonagon, colored. When the case was tried in the "big court" he got 12 years. Following this action his attorneys, Crice and Ross, set about to secure new evidence. They found that the woman had been married or been a mother and that she had sworn adversely to this in police and circuit court. The attorneys showed that Cooper had been misrepresented and by agreement the judgment was set aside and Cooper released from custody.

Civil Actions.
In the case of Milton Mills against W. J. Smooth and others, a judgment for sale was filed.

In the case of John Rock, assignee, against the Paducah Towing company, a report was filed.

In the case of W. A. Gardner against Jessie M. Ware, a judgment of sale was filed.

Admitted to Bail.

In the matter of Cicero Anderson, charged with the murder of John Mix, the defendant was allowed bail which was fixed at $5,000. He offered John Little, the spoke man, as surety and the court stated that he would look into the matter. The court intimated that this bond would be sufficient.

The following prisoners were sentenced this morning: Lena Jackson, colored, attempted arson, one year; James Van Hook, Will Williams, colored, robbery, eight years each; Will Tucker, colored, house-breaking, three years; Joe King, colored, malicious shooting, four years.

Shortest Term.

Grace Bennett, colored, got the lightest penitentiary term of the session. She was tried this morning by a special jury and given three months in the penitentiary for attempted arson. She is alleged to have engaged with Lena Jackson in attempting to set fire to the house of Mattie Martin on West Washington street.

Almost Paid Out.

A. E. Boyd, assignee in the case of John J. Blech, was released yesterday. Blech lacked but a few cents of paying his debts dollar for dollar.

A Race for Life.

Middlesboro, Ky., Sept. 21.—A curious accident occurred on the Middlesboro Belt railroad this morning at 10 o'clock, resulting in serious injuries to several persons. A McDonald, of Middlesboro, had his arm broken and a woman was seriously injured. A passenger train was standing at Fork Ridge mines, preparing to go to Hartrant, when a freight train further up the mountain broke loose and came down the mountain. Engineer Fredwell, in charge of the passenger train, saw the danger and reversed his engine and a race for life ensued, both trains running down the mountain. The passengers jumped for their lives, but the freight was checked in time to prevent a collision.

Snakebite May Be Fatal.

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

A Race for Life.

Middlesboro, Ky., Sept. 21.—A curious accident occurred on the Middlesboro Belt railroad this morning at 10 o'clock, resulting in serious injuries to several persons. A. McDonald, of Middlesboro, had his arm broken and a woman was seriously injured. A passenger train was standing at Fork Ridge mines, preparing to go to Hartraut, when a freight train further up the mountain broke loose and came down the mountain. Engineer Fredwell, in charge of the passenger train, saw the danger and reversed his engine and a race for life ensued, both trains running down the mountain. The passengers jumped for their lives, but the freight was checked in time to prevent a collision.

Snakebite May Be Fatal.

Fulton, Ky., Sept. 21.—Charles Smith, son of J. W. Smith, a prominent tobacco planter near here, was bitten today by a snake on the foot. The young man was hurried to town and medical attention given him, but little hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Horse Show October 1

Phantom Detective Tonight.
Rowland & Clifford have ten attractions en-tour this season and among the most successful is the brilliant success, "The Phantom Detective," which is a positively out of the ordinary melodramatic musical play. The company is a large and talented one and the scenic environment and costuming brilliant. "The Phantom Detective" comes to the Kentucky tonight.

Thoroughbred Tramp.
"A Thoroughbred Tramp," Elmer Walters' popular western play, will be presented in its original form at The Kentucky Saturday Matinee and night. This season Mr. Walters is making a feature in this production of the fast moving train in a rain storm, which he helped bring into popularity many years ago and it is said the scene in the third act is a marvelous attempt at realism. The piece has a well written story and the fun is fast and furious.

Children's Matinee.
Manager Malone has announced a special children's matinee for school children at the park tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The program will consist of vaudeville, animal acts and moving pictures. Special prices will obtain.

Clothes That Are Good

It isn't a difficult matter to select a suit or overcoat at Wallerstein's. All the best makes in America are here, and it becomes therefore a matter of taste with you. If we carried but one or two lines then it would be a problem to find what your mind might fancy. But with everything good to choose from, your work is simplified. The greatest store in the world cannot limit its operations to any one class. Its manifest duty is to please all classes and this naturally explains its greatness. The vast variety of fall suits and overcoats now on display tells the story of Wallerstein's supremacy better than words can do it.

A pleasing feature of our display of fall suits is the special line of silk mixed all worsteds and chevots at the price of $15.00. The general and detailed excellence of these suits will find favor for them at once, and they will be a strong permanent feature of this establishment. They are made especially to our order by houses of unquestioned skill. The colors are plain black, check worsteds and p'd chevots. Examine them and see how much value is given at $15

Other prices in suits range from $7.50 to $25.

Atterbury System suits, known and acknowledged to be the best and most refined clothes of the period, range in price from $22.50 to $40. They are the type to please the most particular dressers and are all made on the custom tailor plan—individually. Atterbury System Suits have gained a great following in Paducah, and the models for this fall will add materially to the list.
